

Project Dignity of WNC Inc. 501(c)3, a nonprofit whose mission is to provide feminine hygiene products to women and girls in Hendersonville and surrounding areas who might be homeless, low-income, or victims of domestic abuse.

Why help out?

- SNAP or Food Stamps do not allow the purchase of feminine hygiene products
- Women and girls are often absent from work and school during their “time of the month” because they don’t have proper personal health products.
- Project Dignity of WNC provides feminine products to 15 agencies and 30 schools in Henderson and Buncombe counties.
- Project Dignity of WNC serves 560 women monthly by providing over 5,000 tampons and over 3,000 pads.

How you can help?

- Give a check or cash donation
- Supply pads and tampons
- Spread the word by telling friends about Project Dignity of WNC Inc.
